just what you pay for, generally. If a paint is cheap, you can depend upon it that the quality is cheap.

But it sells for only 10% less than a good paint. That's because a man always puts price first, and service next. Isn't that true? It really is worth just about half what is, because it lasts only half so long, and looks only half so well.

WHAT IT WAS.

The minister was addressing the Sunday school.

"Children, I want to talk to you for a few moments about one of the most vital, one of the most wonderful, one of the most important organs in the whole world," he said.

"What is it that throbs away, beats away, never stopping, never ceasing, whether you wake or sleep, night or day, week in and week out, without any vacation on your part, hidden away in the depths, as it were, unseen by you, throbbing, throbbing rhythmically all your life long?"

During this pause for oratorical effect a small voice was heard:

"I know; it's the gas meter!"

SOCIAL EVENTS OF THE WEEK

WORKING GIRLS' HOTEL

NO HUMILIATING "RULES" OR "CHARITY" FEATURES PREVAIL.

The Peoples Tabernacle.

Here's to those who love us,
And here's to those who don't.
A smile for those who are willing to,
A tear for those who won't.
Here's to the lasses we've loved, my lad,
Here's to the lips we've pressed:
For kisses and lasses, like liquor in glasses,
The last is always the best—Amen.

This has been a busy week in social circles. On Monday afternoon occurred Governor and Mrs. Frear's monthly reception which was largely attended. The same evening a large number attended the reception of the Kiuhuna Art League to view the exhibition of arts and crafts work and jewelry of Mrs. May Mott-Smith Cunningham. On Thursday evening a large and fashionable audience attended the Symphonies Club concert at Bishop Hall, Punahou College, and the week closed with the University Club Ball last evening, the most important event of the year. These affairs besides the usual run of smaller affairs made it a week very crowded than usual, and one which has about tired everybody out.

The University Club ball last night was fully up to the expectations of the many local people who had looked forward to it. The fine club rooms, with a portion of the Hawaiian Hotel, were as beautiful as clever and artistic use of the abundance of local decorating material could have made them. Comments on the decoration scheme were enthusiastic throughout the evening, and the members of the committee, on decorations, Albert F. Afong, Clarence Cooke and W. A. Love, were much complimented on the beautiful results of their labors. They had the assistance of Mrs. Afong and others in getting some of the material so finely placed. Mr. Afong, who had charge of the decorations was much assisted by Harry Macfarlane. Socially the gathering was a very brilliant one, and while the number present was large, the space provided was sufficient, and the dances were greatly enjoyed. The patter of some heavy showers of rain outside only seemed to add to the brilliancy and comfort of the brightly illuminated ball rooms. The occasion will certainly be remembered as a great success in the Club's history.

The ladies who received for the Club were Mrs. Walter Frear, in a beautiful white embroidered silk gown with chiffon ruffles; Mrs. A. Gartley, in white silk crepe; Mrs. W. S. Babbitt, in white organza; Mrs. J. R. Galt, in a handsome black lace dress over white; Mrs. Clarence H. Cooke, in an exquisite white embroidered silk, and Mrs. Hailou, in a beautiful white all-over lace gown. Each of the ladies carried a large bunch of double violets in harmony with the beautiful wisteria of the ball room decorations. Never before have so many new and beautiful dresses been seen together. The prevailing styles were the Princess and Empire models with the modified Empire decidedly in the lead. The color tones of the gowns were mostly white and very delicate shades, the few dark or vivid dresses standing out sharply in contrast. Miss Lorna Laukea, in a bright scarlet, and a Mrs. Reed, of Los Angeles, in a deep blue clinging gown, made striking pictures. Mrs. Ralph Foster, Mrs. C. W. C. Deering, and Miss Marion Roth wore handsome spangled chiffon gowns. Mrs. George Fairchild wore a beautiful delicate lace gown, and the Princess Kawannanaka looked very distinguished in a all-over lace robe. Of the younger set Alice Cooke was sweetly pretty in a fluffy pink tulle; Beatrice Castle in a white silk dotted net, and Alice Hedemann in a pale yellow soft silk gown.

The arrangements were in the hands of the following committees, the first named being in each case chairman:

General Committee—J. R. Galt, H. E. Cooke, A. P. Afong, A. Gartley, G. P. Cooke, Harold Castle, Wade Warren Thayer.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—To provide suitable quarters for homeless girls in a large city has always been a difficult problem for the sociologist to solve.

One hotel, just opened in New York, the Emeline Yorke-Tyndall Hotel, 88 East 102d street, will not, it is said, have any of the objections that have been urged against some of its forerunners. "Lights out at 11 o'clock" will be the only rule enforced about the place, and masculine callers will be discouraged, with pretty parlors for their entertainment. The hotel, solely for working girls, is an adjunct of the People's Tabernacle, an inter-denominational church, which stands right next door, and of which the Rev. H. M.

Tyndall is pastor. But there is to be no religious atmosphere about the new hotel. As long as a girl is respectable, she can go to any church, or no church.

The hotel was built almost wholly with his own hands by Mr. Tyndall. He has been more than two years at the work, and has produced a modern building. A girl will receive board and lodging at the hotel as low as $2.50 a week. The erection of the hotel is not in any way a work of charity. Rather, it is one of benevolence on the part of a pastor who believes much good can be done by giving shelter and comfort to a deserving class of workers.

Mrs. Rose Hooper Plotner, who moved into her new studio in the Voorhies building on the 18th of the month, gave a delightful "opening" tea yesterday afternoon between the hours of 4 and 6, during which time her studio was crowded with guests. Mrs. Plotner was assisted in receiving her guests by her mother, Mrs. William O. Hooper, Mrs. Selby Hanna and several others.—S. F. Call.

Within the next few weeks General and Mrs. John McClellan will depart from Coronado, Cal., and this country for Honolulu to be gone an indefinite length of time. On Christmas night the McClellans gave a farewell dinner to Major and Mrs. Gatenell and several officers from Fort Rosecrans. Covers were laid for eleven. The table was decorated in smilax and poinsettias. Artillery red predominated in the color decorations. In the center of the table were two artillery sabers, crossed, and tied with ribbons of the artillery red. Commander and Mrs. A. C. Almy were present.—Army and Navy Register, Jan. 4.

Mr. and Mrs. George Roedick and two children arrived home on Wednesday on the Mongolia from a several months' trip to the Coast.

Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Derby have returned home from the Coast where Mrs. Derby has spent the past six months. They were accompanied by Mrs. E. B. Derby and Mr. Albert E. Derby.

Mrs. Herman Focke returned on Wednesday by the Mongolia, from a trip to Europe where she has been for the benefit of her health.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Strong arrived here on Wednesday and are guests of their daughter, Mrs. George R. Carter.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Pillsbury, of Minneapolis, whose name has made Minnesota flour famous, are here for a several weeks' stay, arriving on the Mongolia on Wednesday. They are accompanied by their children, Misses Nell, Catherine and Clark, and Master Phillip W. Pillsbury.

Honolulu is at the present time honored by the presence of a number of visitors of more than local prominence. Probably the one most widely known is Ella Wheeler Wilcox, whose writings have made her famous in the literary and newspaper world. She and her husband, Robert M. Wilcox, arrived here on the Mongolia on Wednesday and plan to spend a month, or perhaps two or three months in the Territory. They come here solely for the vacation trip, Mrs. Wilcox stating that she does not anticipate doing much work during her stay. "We have been spending our winters in the tropics for several years," said Mrs. Wilcox. "Last year we were in Egypt and one season we spent in the West Indies. This is the first time we have been on the Pacific, however, thought we had long planned to visit Hawaii."

Mr. and Mrs. Alden Anderson, of California, also arrived on the Mongolia. Mr. Anderson has been prominent in politics in California and was Lieutenant Governor during Governor Pardee's administration. The former governor had expected to also come down to Honolulu for a visit, but was delayed at the last moment. He may be down later. The Alden party also includes Mrs. Corrine Rideout, Mrs. Melissa A. Potter, Miss Nellie Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. J. Walter Scott, and Miss Scott. They have taken cottages at the Seaside and will be here a month or more.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Welch Jr. entertained at a very enjoyable luncheon on Sunday at the Burlingame Club in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Glass, the party afterward motoring to the polo game. Those present were, besides the guests of honor, Mr. and Mrs. Norris Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent de Laveaga and Mr. and Mrs. William Hitchcock.—S. F. Bulletin.

The Edison Adams Jr. are en route to Honolulu, where they are sure to enjoy an ideal honeymoon. The Fox-Adams wedding was one of the prettiest ceremonies of the year, and I hear that the wedding gifts the young people received were most elaborate and numerous. The wedding journey is to be of some weeks' duration, and when the young people return they will make their home with Mrs. Fox at her Oak street residence.—Oakland Enquirer.

The rain on Wednesday night did not seem to have much effect on the ardor of the dancers who journeyed out to the Seaside to the dance that was given in honor of the captain and passengers of the P. M. liner Mongolia. Ernest Kaul and his singing boys kept the crowd in good humor until after eleven o'clock.

Among those that I noticed on the floor were the Misses Jordan, Olmsted, Macfarlanes and Winstons, the Messdames Newell, Broons, Johnson, Martin, Fairchild, Pillsbury, Rawlins, Olmsted and Macfarlanes, and the Messrs. Castle, Major Dunning, Johnson, Dowsett, Brooks, McCriston, Atkinson, Riley, Matheson, Connors, Davis, and many others.

The engagement is announced of Miss Georgie Spieker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Spieker, to Mr. John S. Drum. Their wedding will be celebrated in the early spring.—Argonaut.

Miss Spieker has visited in Honolulu and has some warm friends here.

The Symphony Club concert on Thursday evening was one of the most finished musical affairs given for a long time in Honolulu, and probably was the best that the Club has ever done. It was largely attended, Bishop Hall, at Punahou College being crowded to its capacity, and most of the program was enjoyed by most of the audience. The Club is composed of finished musicians and their work last night would certainly pass with credit anywhere. The second part was severely classical and was probably a trifle heavy for the average audience. It would have taken better at the first part rather than the last of the evening. Mrs. Kahl's singing was enjoyed. Her voice, especially in her higher register is very beautiful. Then the chorus was good. All of the twenty-five in it are experienced vocalists and they sang together admirably. The selections were of a character which took well with the hearers. Director Bode deserves much credit for the results of the chorus, as well as of the Orchestra.

In the Orchestra were:

Director, R. R. Bode; first violins, Mrs. Ingalls, Dr. O. E. Wall, W. A. Love and Herr Kahl; second violins, Mrs. E. A. Ross, Miss Bessie Hopper, Miss Violet Damon and Dr. Moore; viola, B. L. Marx; cello, Dr. Carl Ramus; double bass, Messrs. Williams and Vierra; flute, Chas. S. Desky; clarinet, Mr. Chadwick; oboe, Messrs. Kopke and Bechtel; organ, George Cooke; first cornet, G. J. Boisse; second cornet, C. Kruss; trombone, J. K. Kanaa; tympani and drums, S. Peck; piano, Mr. Falke.

In the chorus were: Sopranos, Mrs. C. B. Cooper, Mrs. S. E. Damon, Mrs. Alex. Lindsay Jr., Mrs. Williams Martin, Mrs. E. A. Mott-Smith, Mrs. H. M. von Holt, Miss Waddington and Miss K. Ward; contraltos, Miss Aylett, Miss Judd, Mrs. W. A. Kinney, Miss Ada Rhodes, Mrs. Simpson, Mrs. C. S. Weight and Miss Minnie; tenors, L. G. Blackman, C. Edmunds, P. J. Harwood, Arthur Wall and Clarence Waterman; basses, D. Anderson, Walter Beakbane, A. J. Blackman, Rev. A. L. Hall and Curzon Osborne.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rice returned on the Mongolia from their wedding trip. They will make their future home in Kanae.

The Rt. Rev. Bishop da Silva of the Roman Catholic Church, assisted by Father Valentin, administered the holy rite of confirmation at St. Augustine Chapel, Waikiki, Wednesday afternoon, to the three children of the Prince and Princess Kawanakoa, the infant son of Dr. and Mrs. Harvey Murray and the two children of the Walter Macfarlanes. Only the members of the three families were present.

Commander and Mrs. A. C. Almy arrived at the Hotel del Coronado, Coronado, Cal., shortly before Christmas. They came from St. Louis, Mo., their home. Commander Almy is in charge of some naval construction work about San Diego Harbor.—Army and Navy Register, Jan. 4.

Mr. Walter Dillingham and Mr. Harold Dillingham are expected to arrive here from Honolulu on February 6.—Argonaut.

Mrs. May Mott-Smith Cunningham, who is visiting in the city, is a guest at the home of her brother, E. A. Mott-Smith, on Nuuanu avenue. She expects to be here until the third week in March, when she will return to San Francisco where she is prominently identified in art circles.

In spite of a very rainy and disagreeable evening the rooms of the Kiuhuna Art League were well filled last Monday evening with members and guests by special invitations to meet Mrs. May-Mott-Smith Cunningham and to view the beautiful collection of unique jewelry, arts and crafts work, and paintings which she brought with her from San Francisco and of which she was the originator of much. Mrs. Cunningham, formerly of Honolulu, has won much distinction on the mainland in her art work. Some of her paintings are on exhibition at the League rooms at present and evince the marked ability she possesses with the brush. Besides the designs of much of the beautiful jewelry which she brought is after her own original designs. The exhibit has been open to the public daily since Monday and will be for another week. It is being visited and admired by many lovers of the beautiful.

The patronesses of the reception were Mrs. W. F. Frear, Mrs. George R. Carter, Mrs. F. M. Swany, Mrs. Gertrude P. Wilder, Mrs. H. V. von Holt, Mrs. E. A. Mott-Smith, Mrs. C. B. Cooper, Mrs. A. G. Hawes, Jr., Mrs. J. P. Cooke, Mrs. W. R. Brinkerhoff.

The Children's entertainment on Thursday evening by the Olive Branch, Rehearsal, at the Odd Fellows' Hall, was a very pleasant success, and was largely attended. The program follows:

Recitation, Mrs. Petrie.
Fancy Dancing, Misses Violet Ferguson and Edith Kibling.
Vocal Solo, Master Ezra Crane.
Recitation, Miss Clara Smith.
Duet, Violin and Piano, Masters Willard and Kenneth Ables.
Recitation, Miss Violet Swift.
Recitation, Miss Emily Johnson.

A valentine party is being arranged by the members of the Y. W. C. A. to be given next Friday evening at Engle-side. The affair promises to be a very jolly one. Quite a large number of invitations have been sent out.

The meeting of the Epworth League of the M. E. Church last Sunday evening was presided over by Miss Alta Morrison, who left on Thursday on the Mongolia for Seoul, Korea, to take charge as resident nurse of the Methodist Hospital there for a year, during the absence of the regular nurse, Miss Morrison's departure is a matter of deep regret to her many friends in Honolulu. She has been identified here for a number of years, being assistant pastor during the ministry of the Rev. John W. Wadman. The work at the Seoul Hospital is under the supervision of Dr. Heber Jones, who filled the M. E. pulpit in Honolulu for some months and has many friends here.

As a farewell function preceding her departure January 20 for Honolulu, where she will remain for several months, Ella Wheeler Wilcox was tendered a box party and banquet last night, Mrs. Charles Wellington Rand acting as hostess.

The party consisted of Ella Wheeler Wilcox, her husband Robert Marius Wilcox, Col. A. W. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. George Drake Ruddy and Mrs. Charles Wellington Rand.

The party attended the Mason theatre, witnessing the "Tattooed Man" of Frank Daniels.

An after theatre banquet was served in the Indian Mission grill of the Alexandria Hotel.

The table occupied by the Rand party was beautifully decorated, a large mass of moss ferns sitting in the center of the table.

Wreaths of Hawaiian flowers were hung over the backs of the chairs and a Hawaiian orchestra furnished music.—S. F. Chronicle.

Mrs. W. H. Rhodes, wife of the chief clerk of the United States Quartermaster's Depot, with two children, sailed by the Thomas on Tuesday for the Coast.

It is announced that the marriage of Miss Margaret Hyde-Smith, daughter of Mrs. Eleanor Hyde-Smith, to Mr. Harold Dillingham of Honolulu, will be celebrated on Monday evening, February 24, at 9 o'clock, at the home of the bride, on Fillmore street. Miss Gertrude Hyde-Smith, the bride's sister, will be the maid of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Julia Langhorne, Miss Helene Irwin, Miss Mary Keeney and Miss Marion Newhall. Mr. Walter Dillingham, the bridegroom's brother, will be the best man. There will be no ushers.—San Francisco Argonaut.

Bishop Moore, who has been here for several weeks attending the Methodist Conference, left on the Korea, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Pitkin, of Denver, who accompanied him, and who has many friends here.

Disgusted with the extreme proportions of the fashionable mushroom hats of the winter, annoyed at the number of ostrich plumes required to trim them, and also at the corresponding size of the milliners' bills, a group of independent girls of Oakland, California, have pledged themselves to make all their own hats this season. A milliner's trimmer was engaged to give them lessons in lining and trimming hats, so that trimmings might be firmly adjusted, as nothing is more ugly than wobbly hat trimming. The young women most interested have appeared at several teas in becoming hats of their own manufacture. One of the young women is the wife of a wealthy man and the foster daughter of a multimillionaire, and another is the daughter of a millionaire sugar planter of Hawaii, so that it was not lack of money which impelled them to the step. They simply refused to wear the model hats as shown in the shops this winter.—M. C. D. In Good House-keeping.

The coming marriage of Mr. R. Rudland Bode will be pleasant news to the many friends of the organist and musical director of Honolulu's Symphony
